application that he was born at Detroit, Michigan on January 28, 1905; that his permanent residence was at 211 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; that his occupation was that of a Seaman. The subject advised that he desired that his passport be mailed in care of FREEDMAN, GOLDSTEIN and PECHNER, 1501 Franklin Trust Building, 15th and Chestnut Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

In connection with the above application it is noted that one JOSEPH P. WOJAROMSKI (last name illegible) of 230 Delancey Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania executed an affidavit on February 23, 1937 wherein he stated that he had known the subject for three years and that he knew him to be an American citizen.

These records disclose a letter from the Department of Health, City of Detroit, dated March 16, 1937, wherein it is stated that a search of the files of this Department failed to reveal a record of birth for one FRED R. MILLER.

Passport records contain an affidavit executed by the subject on February 23, 1937 at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania wherein he stated that in order to join the Navy on September 5, 1923, in lieu of a birth certificate, his mother was required to make affidavits as to the place and time of his birth. He explained that these affidavits were made in the presence of a County Recorder of Deeds at Bay City, Michigan on or about the first of September 1923. He stated that these affidavits were turned over to the Bureau of Navigation upon his enlistment in the Navy. He stated that inasmuch as he had no living relatives with whom he could get in touch with, he respectfully submitted this affidavit as proof of American citizenship.

These records contain an affidavit executed by the subject's aunt, Mrs. NELLIE WELCH, 109 N. Walner Street, Bay City, Michigan on March 4, 1937, wherein she stated that FRED B. MILLER was born on January 28, 1905 at Detroit, Michigan and that such knowledge is based on the fact that the subject is her deceased sister's son and that during her sister's confinement she (MRS. WELCH) helped take care of the subject.

A despatch was received from Seville, Spain on November 18, 1938 which indicated that the subject was included on a list of Americans held in a concentration camp at San Pedro de Cardenas (Burgos) on November 12, 1938.

It is noted that the subject registered as an American citizen at Havre, France on April 27, 1939 at which time he advised that he had resided in Spain from March 27, 1937 to April 22, 1939 and in France from April 22, 1939 to "date". At this time he furnished the following references:

WFO 100-21480

~~ELEANORE BOWEN~~, 1307 North Monroe Street, Bay City, Michigan; ~~RALPH POWELL~~, RFD Midland Road, Bay City, Michigan.

The subject was issued a Certificate of Identity and Registration No. 32 at Havre, France, on April 27, 1939 for immediate return to the United States only.

A memorandum was placed in the subject's passport file on February 26, 1940 which stated that the subject had served in the Loyalist Army during the Civil War in Spain from 1936 to 1938.

Passport records reflect that the subject recently wrote to the Passport Division from 134 Broad Street, New York, New York, letter undated, requesting to be furnished with proof of his American citizenship inasmuch as it had become necessary for him to produce proof of his citizenship to the U. S. Coast Guard for the reissuance of "Seaman's Papers".

On October 4, 1949 the Passport Division wrote to the subject at 134 Broad Street, New York, New York and advised that in connection with the application upon which a passport was issued to him on March 19, 1937 the subject submitted an affidavit, executed by his aunt, Mrs. NELLIE WELCH, certifying that he was born at Detroit, Michigan on January 28, 1905.

The following description of the subject appears on his Certificate of Identity and Registration dated April 27, 1939 at Havre, France: Height, 5' 6", Hair, dark blond; Eyes, grey; occupation, seaman; marks, none.

The files of the Passport Division disclose no further pertinent information concerning the subject.

U. S. Merchant Seaman records, maintained by U. S. Coast Guard, Washington, D. C., reflect that FRED RALPH MILLER who was issued Seaman's Certificate of Identification No. Z-129501 on May 15, 1939 at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, has a record of 17 voyages. This individual was last discharged on July 23, 1949 at Houston, Texas and the comment appears in these files that he is not presently at sea. The subject's birth is reflected as January 29, 1907 at Detroit, Michigan. In May 1939 and July 1939 the subject listed his home address as 134 Broad Street, New York, New York. In September 1940 subject listed his home address as 105 Broad Street, New York, New York. Previous home address listed in 1934 is shown as 1019 North Jackson Street, Bay City, Michigan. Subject listed his uncle, ~~RALPH POWELL~~, Bay City, Michigan, as next of kin. These records contain the following description of the subject:

WFO 100-21480

Height, 5' 6"; Eyes, blue; Hair, brown; Complexion, fair.

U. S. Merchant Seaman records reflect no additional information concerning the subject.

(100-7060)

Rerep SA HERBERT F. GRATEHOUSE, Philadelphia, 10/21/49, and rerep SA DAVID R. LAWRIE, Washington, D. C., 12/5/49.

The records of the Merchants Credit Bureau, Bay City, Michigan, fail to disclose any information regarding a FRED RALPH MILLER. These records do show that a RALPH POWELL lived at 821 - 22nd Street, Bay City, in 1943 and was formerly employed by the Michigan Pipe Company of Bay City. He left Bay City and was employed some place in Detroit, but his exact employment and residence were unknown.

Mrs. MAX F. DEHART, 1019 North Jackson Street, Bay City, advised she has lived there since 1945, but never heard of Subject.

Mrs. RONSON, 1017 North Jackson has lived there 20 years, but never heard of Subject.

There is no record of Subject or POWELL at the Bay City Police Department.

It may be noted that referenced report from Philadelphia requests that inquiry be made at Bay City in an effort to locate Subject who gave 1019 North Jackson as his address in 1939 and listed RALPH POWELL as his next of kin. POWELL reportedly lived at Bay City.

Referenced report from Washington Field points out that RALPH POWELL is an uncle of the Subject and as of October 4, 1949 the Subject's address was 134 Broad Street, New York, New York.

Inasmuch as the information requested by the Philadelphia Office has been furnished in referenced report of the Washington Field Office, no further investigation is being conducted by the Detroit Office, unless advised to the contrary, and the case is being considered RUC.
